SUMMER ON THE WHITE ISLE

The Art Büro is en route to Ibiza! Known for technicolour sunsets and carefree hedonism, the island has a magical spirit. Ibiza has always been a place of inspiration and refuge for creatives and we think it's one of the most special places in the world.

Whether you're strolling in the Dalt Villa, exploring the Hippy Market in Santa Gertrudis or taking in an extravagant cabaret show, Ibiza has something for everyone.

We asked the team at Lucas Fox Ibiza here on the island for some of their best kept tips and mixed them with our own artsy team favourites. So whether you've been coming here since the 70s or it's your first visit, we hope this guide helps you to experience the best of Ibiza this summer!

THE HOTTEST HOTELS

Atzaró

Atzaró is a family-run 'Agroturismo' hotel and spa, set on a picturesque orange farm in the heart of Ibiza. Luxurious yet simple, Atzaró is the epitome of natural luxury and boasts just 24 bedrooms for the most romantic and beautiful experience.

Six Senses

Overlooking the stunning Cala Xarraca on the northern tip of Ibiza, Six Senses is pure escapism. In their own words, they offer "a meaningful setting for experiences rooted in the local culture, celebrating music, art, sustainable fashion, wellness and spirituality that has become synonymous with the island."

W

The much anticipated W Ibiza is a playful hotel on the shores of Santa Eulalia, inspired by the fun bohemian atmosphere of the island. Enjoy day parties on the poolside Wet Deck or unwind at their onsite spa and beauty bar.

The Standard

A stone's throw from the marina, the recently opened adults' only Standard is one of the coolest new destinations in Ibiza. The sweeping views of the castle and old town from the rooftop pool are not to be missed.

Ca Na Xica

Ca Na Xica is a secluded home from home, nestled among olive groves and orchards in the countryside between San Miguel and Santa Gertrudis. Surrounded by nature, this pampering retreat is ideal for relaxing far from the parties and bustling coastline.

OKU Ibiza

The 5 star OKU Hotel is a nature-inspired bohemian paradise close to San Antonio in the West. Located beside the lovely Cala Gracio Bay, expect earthy tones, daily yoga lessons and a curated selection of poolside DJ programmes.

Petunia - Agroturismo Es Vedrà

Petunia Ibiza is an intimate hideaway with ethereal views across the sea to Es Vedrà. Very peaceful and Mediterranean, this adults only hotel in the hills of Sant Josep de sa Talaia is really special (you'll never want to leave their stunning rooftop restaurant and bar).

THE BEST BEACH CLUBS

Casa Jondal

Casa Jondal on Ibiza's southern coast is a picture perfect chiringuito with a difference - it is home to world-renowned chef Rafael Zafra (formerly the head chef at El Bulli). Simply incredible.

Beach House

Beach House is a Balearic sanctuary dedicated to "foodies and creatives with curious minds", they have a great kids club, lovely morning yoga and "the boho experience" every Thursday!

Experimental Beach Club

The Ibiza outpost of the acclaimed Experimental Group, expect a cool seaside escape tucked away in the Las Salinas salt reserve at Cap d'es Falco.

Cotton Beach Club

The all-white Cotton Beach Club in Cala Tarida on the southwest coast contrasts brilliantly with the electric-blues of the sea. An unmissable spot.

THE BEST BEACH CLUBS

Atzaró Beach Club

Located on the sparkling beach of Cala Nova, in North-East Ibiza's north-east, Atzaró Beach is known for its healthy fresh dishes made with organic vegetables from the Atzaró Vegetable Garden - dreamy!

Amante

Perched on a cliff overlooking Sol Den Serra bay, the restaurant is surrounded by dramatic rocks and lush greenery - an idyllic backdrop for long daytime lunches and dining under the stars with friends.

WHERE TO EAT + DRINK

Passion Cafe

Our favourite breakfast spot, Passion Cafe overlooks Ibiza Old Town from the marina and serves healthy dishes with bright pops of colour. Warm, friendly service and a welcoming atmosphere.

★ La Paloma TAB FAVOURITE

Born in 2004, family-run La Paloma is set in authentic, converted countryside Finca. They serve delicious homemade food in a rustic, friendly atmosphere among the trees.

Casa Maca

The in-house restaurant at rural retreat Casa Maca is excellent. Their alfresco grill and open air dining space overlook Ibiza Old Town and the sea beyond. Meat, fish and farm-grown vegetables cook slowly over an open fire and they also host chilled live music and DJ sets by their super cool silver airstream bar!

La Gaia by Oscar Molina

La Gaia at Ibiza Gran Hotel is the first hotel in Ibiza to be awarded a Michelin star, with award-winning chef Óscar Molina at the helm. A delicious menu focusing on local produce from the island.

El Silencio

Designed by Mallorca-based architecture studio Moredesign, El Silencio is known among locals as one of the best secret spots to celebrate the sunset - overlooking picturesque Cala Moli.

WHERE TO EAT + DRINK

Asal

Ultra contemporary Asal feels like a carved white cave, inspired by organic Gaudí-style natural forms. Chef Mario Sandoval has created an avant-garde Mediterranean menu worthy of the impressive setting.

Jul´s

A modern fine-dining Greek restaurant with a gorgeous garden lounge, located in the south of Ibiza near Sa Caleta beach. Mediterranean cuisine with a creative Greek twist.

A Mi Manera

A delightful dining experience in a relaxed, pretty (and functional) garden, A Mi Manera serves organic local produce from their own orchard with a real focus on sustainability.

Fish Shack Talamanca

Officially called Chiringuito de María, "The Fish Shack" is located on the rocks at the far end of Talamanca bay and serves simple, fresh fish in an unpretentious and authentic setting.

Nagai

Serving some of the best Japanese fusion cuisine on the island, Nagai specialises in authentic Sushi and Tempura with live music in their pretty courtyard.

ART ON THE ISLAND

La Nave Salinas

Constructed in 1941 as a salt warehouse, La Nave was transformed by Lio Malca in 2015 into a dynamic exhibition space to showcase the museum quality works from his personal collection. The foundation is dedicated to bringing contemporary art to the community with exhibitions by the likes of Rafa Macarrón, Kieth Haring, KAWS and more.

Museu d'Art Contemporani Eivissa (MACE)

Ibiza's Museum of Contemporary Art is set in an emblematic historic building in the Dalt Vila. MACE is home to works by international artists and also showcases the work of emerging local artists.

Art Projects Ibiza + Lune Rouge

The Lune Rouge Collection features the works of established local and international artists from the private collection of Guy Laliberté (founder of Cirque du Soleil). Art Projects Ibiza hosts two shows per year: a summer and a winter edition.

Parra & Romero

This Madrid gallery has 2 spaces in Ibiza, (Santa Gertrudis opened in Spring 2022). The gallery has a strong curatorial programme and represents internationally established artists from Spain and abroad.

Can Tixedó Art Cafe

A meeting point for artists and residents for over 25 years, Can Tixedó is where art meets gastronomy in Ibiza. The space hosts rotating exhibitions of international and local artists, talks and art-related events.

CAN IBIZA

CAN, Contemporary Art Now is a curated, invitation-only art fair providing an innovative platform to discover the latest trends in current creation from the Mediterranean island of Ibiza

For 5 days this summer, the island will become a meeting point for artists, art collectors, enthusiasts, and personalities of the local and international cultural scene. CAN will bring together more than thirty international galleries, mainly from Europe, America, and Asia, and present more than 100 established and emerging artists under the same roof.
